Decorum during Holy Week Services. Passion week is the most solemn week of the entire year. All pious Orthodox Christians should attend as many services as possible—as a minimum, to attend one of the services on Holy Thursday; the Holy Friday evening service; and one of the services on Holy Saturday. Confession and Communion are available on Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday of Holy Week. When in church we should REFRAIN FROM ANY AND ALL UNNECESSARY CONVERSATION. Our attention should be focused on the events which we are commemorating—the betrayal, suffering, crucifixion, and death of our Lord. We should be contemplating our own sins, for which He suffered and died. We thank you in advance for contributing to a quiet and pious atmosphere in Church.

Parish Bulletin. In order to better communicate with our parishioners and friends, as well as to save trees, we now circulate our parish bulletin by e-mail. If you, or someone you know, would like to receive the bulletin by e-mail, please forward your or their e-mail address to Fr. Bohdan at bhldio@sympatico.ca. This is an excellent way for all those who are away at school, homebound, who live at some distance from the church, etc. to maintain contact with their parish. Thank you!

Please accept our best wishes for a worthy celebration of Holy Week and Pascha!
